OGDEN, UTAH, SUNDAY, JUNE 20, 1909.

PRICE 65 CENTS PER MONTH.

TO THE WOMEN OF OGDEN.

The management of the Ogden Morning Examiner has engaged Miss Martha March, who will write and edit a Woman's Home Page for the readers of the Examiner. This department will make its first appearance commencing with tomorrow morning's issue, and will continue to be a daily feature. The women of Ogden have long needed a home page, and now their home paper has offered them what they want. Girls and women can ask questions of any nature, pertaining to any and all questions, whether personal or otherwise, and all questions and subjects will be given space by the editor of this department. It is hoped that the women of Ogden will make themselves at home in this department to the practical and useful ends of all. Commencing tomorrow, it is your department, ladies! Take advantage of it. All letters and queries addressed to this department will be received by Miss March, personally, and she will answer and debate any and all questions of interest for the women of Ogden. If a personal reply is preferred, kindly enclose a stamped envelope, and the editor of the Home Page Department will gladly and promptly answer your communication. Address all letters to Miss Martha March, Woman's Home Page, Department, Ogden Morning Examiner, Ogden, Utah.

The Good Templars are preparing to take an outing on June 28th. A place in the country where all the fine ripe strawberries can be obtained will be secured, and a jolly good time may be had. All members will be doing themselves a great favor by holding themselves in readiness to be one of the party. The Good Templars meet each Friday night at 8 p. m. in Trades and Labor hall, on Twenty-fourth street.

CENTRAL GLEE CLUB.

The Central Glee club of Central college, Pella, Ia., delighted an appreciative audience at the Baptist church Friday evening with a fine musical program, which they rendered at the conclusion of the regular services which were being held. The Glee club came here on short notice and it was found impossible to arrange an open date for them. They were obliged consequently to give their concert in connection with the regular service. The music equaled any ever given here and they responded to many encores.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Eckardt entertained the Jolly Bachelors' club Monday evening, June 6, the occasion being in honor of their son Henry's eighteenth birthday.

The evening was spent at cards and music, after which an elaborate supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers. Mr. Eckardt was the recipient of many beautiful birthday remembrances.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Eckardt entertained the Jolly Bachelors' club, Monday evening, June 6, the occasion being in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their son, Henry. The evening was spent in music and cards, after which a very elaborate supper was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers. Henry was the recipient of beautiful presents.

FLAG DAY CELEBRATION.

A largely attended and successful event of Flag Day was the excellent program rendered at Elks' hall Monday evening, under the direction of the local club.

Among those who participated were Prof. Squire Coop, Mrs. Dalrymple, Mrs. Lynch, Messrs. Sanders and Browne, A. T. Hestmark, C. A. Boyd, and Rev. Franklin S. Shaulding, D. D., who delivered an eloquent patriotic address.

FOR MISS STEVENS.

Miss Mary Stevens, of Rexburg, Idaho, was the inspiration of a daintily arranged affair Monday, when Miss Blanche Greenwell was hostess at her home on Twenty-third street. The home was bright with red roses and peonies. Games and music contributed to a pleasant evening and refreshments were served.

Those present to meet Miss Stevens were Messrs. Marian Belnap, Orinda Woolley, Florence Woolley, Pearl Stratford, Minnie Brown; Messrs. Alma Larkin, Edwin Peterson, Moroni Olsen, Henry Anderson, Bert Foulger, Ed Greenwell and Robert Greenwell.

LINCOLN CIRCLE, LADIES OF G. A. R.

Lincoln Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., were very pleasantly entertained Monday afternoon, "Flag Day," by Miss Chapman and Miss Ebb at their home on Adams avenue. There was a large attendance of members, veterans and lady friends of the Circle. The diversion of the afternoon was a short program appropriate to the day. One of the pleasing features was the singing of patriotic songs by the Circle quartet.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, and all went away feeling that they had spent a delightful afternoon.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

A double wedding was solemnized at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Evelyn West, 528 Twenty-fourth street, the contracting parties being Mrs. Maud Eccles and Beverly A. West, and Miss Laura L. Leavitt and Irvin Covey. The marriage service was pronounced by President C. F. Middleton, in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends. The home was prettily decorated, due to the artistic work of Mrs. John McCarty, of Pocatello. Music, both vocal and instrumental, enlivened the occasion, and refreshments were served. The young couples left Thursday morning for Denver, and after a brief honeymoon, will make their homes in Ogden.

NICHOLAS-GLAZER.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholas was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Bernice Nicholas, and Charles C. Glazer, were married. The ceremony, at which Bishop D. H. Easton officiated, took place at seven o'clock under a bower of peonies, and was followed by a large reception, ninety friends calling during the evening. The bride wore a dainty gown of cream silk, with lace trimmings, and carried roses.

THE S. H. A. BANQUET.

A delightful event of Thursday evening was the banquet given at Idlewild by the members of the Sacred Heart Alumnae association in honor of the graduates of the class of '09. The guests of the evening were the graduates, their mothers and the resident and visiting clergymen.

After a little visit and interchange of greetings with teachers and friends, the party left the Sacred Heart academy at 6:30 o'clock. The banquet was followed by an informal reception in honor of the new alumnae members, and later a dancing party was given.

The graduates of '09 are Miss Leta Malone, Miss Monica Miller, Miss Bessie O'Neill, Miss General Hagge and Miss Erma Stewart. The alumnae association was fully represented by resident and out-of-town members.

FLOWER DAY.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Martha May, 447 Twenty-eighth street, Wednesday afternoon. A very important meeting was held, it being Flower Mission day, and something like six bouquets were made up and committed to the care of the hospital, city and county jails, and to the various sick persons and shut-ins of the city, to distribute them.

The members of the committees were well pleased for their trouble when they perceived the pleasure they gave.

Mrs. May and daughter, Miss Helen, refreshed the busy workers with dainty refreshments, and all went home feeling they had done a good day's work.

The next meeting will be held at the Crittenton home, July 7. An interesting little program will be arranged and light refreshments served.

ANDREWS-AUSTIN.

One of the many June weddings occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Andrews, 340 Patterson avenue, when their daughter, Olive Lillian, became the bride of Mr. Ulic S. Austin, Wednesday afternoon, Thomas Y. Champney performing the ceremony. The bride was beautifully attired in a pale blue silk with lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Minnie, and Thomas Baker was best man.

The afternoon and evening were daintily spent in music, and dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin were the recipients of many beautiful presents, and will be at home to their many friends at 2719 Wall avenue.

MCGREGOR-ANDERSON.

The marriage of Miss Agnes M. McGregor and Lawrence Anderson occurred at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of President C. F. Middleton, Mr. Middleton performing the ceremony.

In the evening the young couple were surprised by their brothers and sisters at the McGregor home. The bride wore a white princess gown of embroidery and baliste.

Those who participated in the happy affair were: Messrs. and Madames William B. McGregor, J. J. McGregor, J. S. McGregor, C. R. McGregor, Joseph McGregor, Ernest W. Jones, D. E. Browning, Earl Williams, Jonathan Browning, Misses Pearl Browning, Arba McGregor, Charilla Browning, Mary Larson, Mr. Arthur McGregor.

BAKER-PALMER.

On Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Baker, near 626 Twenty-seventh street, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maggie Baker, and Fred Palmer. Patriarch George W. Larkin officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony, which was performed under a bower of pink and white roses. The bride wore a dainty gown of white messaline silk.

The home was decorated with a profusion of pink and white roses, the table in the dining room, where the wedding supper was served, being especially attractive with an arrangement of the predominating flowers.

The young couple received many handsome and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will be at home to their friends at 2665 Monroe avenue.

PINGREE-CALVERT.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Pingree and Dr. J. R. Calvert took place on Wednesday afternoon in the Salt Lake temple, and on Wednesday evening a large and brilliantly arranged reception was given in their honor at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pingree. The house was decorated with quantities of pink and white roses and smilax. Vases of the flowers were arranged about the rooms, while ropes of smilax and roses festooned the doors and windows. The bride's attendant was Miss Elda Pingree and Francis Goddard was best man. Miss Etta Pingree, Miss Louie Fouthwell, Miss Ethel Thomas and Miss Florence Calvert assisted in receiving, and the Misses Zelpha and Zina Pingree, Nina Handley and Ethel Thomas presided in the dining room. Musical selections were given by a string orchestra, and several vocal selections were rendered during the evening. The bride's dress was white crepe de chene, with trimmings of baby Irish, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid's dress was white swiss and she carried pink roses. Dr. and Mrs. Calvert will leave in a few days for Evanston, Wyo., where they will make their home.

DEGREE OF HONOR.

Mrs. Callie E. Cave, grand chief of honor of the jurisdiction of Utah, Wyoming and Idaho, Degree of Honor left this morning over the Union Pacific to preside at the session of the grand lodge in Park City, Utah, which will be held next week. Mrs. Cave was accompanied by Mrs. Kate E. Howe, grand recorder; Mrs. S. T. Guthrie, Mrs. J. Furniss, Miss L. Jennie Prout, Mrs. Alice Bowen, Mrs. Archie Bowen, Mrs. Sisle M. Simms, Mrs. Jeanette Hill, Mrs. H. C. Hill, Mrs. Jean Watson, officers and delegates of the order.

The ladies anticipate having a fine time, as Park City has spared neither time nor money to make this session one long to be remembered in the history of the degree of honor.

Frances Buell Olson, superior chief of honor, of Sioux City, Ia., and Mrs. Frank Kempson, superior deputy, of Spokane, Wash., will also attend this session, and they hope to accomplish much good for the order.

TACKETT-SPENCER.

A beautiful, though quiet, home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tackett, Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Nell Vivian Tackett, became the bride of Louis Bernard Spencer. The home was elaborately decorated in roses and palms.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock, the bridal party took their places in the parlor, and Rev. Mr. Fleetwood read the impressive marriage service of the Episcopal church in the presence of members of the families and a few intimate friends. The bride was lovely in a handsome white princess gown of hand-made lace, the material of which was the handiwork of the groom's mother, Mrs. H. H. Spencer, and carried an immense bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Conger, was prettily gowned in white messaline and carried white carnations. The groom was attended by George Knauss. Refreshments were served by Misses Cleo and Clista McKendrick.

The young couple were the recipients of many valuable gifts, among them the wedding cake, made as a compliment to the bride by Mrs. Britton, Mr. Manson's private cook. Superintendent Manson, in whose office she was employed for four years, presented the bride with a silver chafing dish, while the office force sent a dainty hand-painted chocolate set, as an accompaniment to their best wishes.

Mr. Spencer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Spencer, and is a prominent mining engineer of Utah and Nevada, and a graduate of Stanford university.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer left Thursday for Hawthorne, Nevada, where Mr. Spencer has mining interests, and they will make their home there.

HOME CULTURE CLUB.

The Home Culture club met for its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. T. W. Horn, Thirty-fourth street and Taylor avenue, Mr. Horn furnishing conveyances from the car line. There is a sentiment among the H. C. C. members that meeting with Mrs. Horn is always an occasion for special remembrance, and this was no exception.

At the business session, two former members, Mrs. Maule and Mrs. Gibson were reinstated as active members. Miss Craven was also elected to membership. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:

Mrs. Geo. E. Maule, president; Mrs. Clayton Coolidge, vice president; Mrs. T. D. Johnson, secretary and treasurer.

The club work for the next year is to be The Bay View Course on Spain, Holland, Norway and Sweden. The club, desiring to know more of the Forestry Department's work decided to give one meeting, in the early fall to this study. A committee consisting of Mrs. Kief, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. McCracken and Mrs. Maule, was appointed to arrange for it. A vote of appreciation was extended to the retiring president, Mrs. J. B. McCracken, for her efficient and faithful service. Mrs. Markle, the club historian, gave the club history in the form of an original poem, which was much appreciated. Mrs. Johnson, by request, read an original poem written on the occasion of a meeting at her home in midwinter.

Miss Ruth Johnson, as pianist, and Miss Ida Anderson, as violinist, delightfully entertained while Mrs. Horn, assisted by her daughter, Mattie, served her dainty refreshments. The ladies lingered long, indulging in many club reminiscences, including the history of the club gavel by Mrs. Markle and a resume of the talk she gave the club at its presentation.

Towards the close of the afternoon it became known that it was Mrs. Horn's birthday, and so with congratulations, best wishes, and expressions of thanks for a delightful afternoon, the club departed for a jolly ride to the car line and home.

Those present were: Mesdames McCracken, Maule, Markle, Johnson, Craig, Burt, Gibson, Kief, Knapp, Putnam, Kohl, Coolidge; Misses Dersel, Ruth Johnson, Ida Anderson, Mattie Horn.

SACRED HEART COMMENCEMENT.

Strikingly effective was the scene in Sacred Heart Academy hall Thursday morning when the graduating exercises were rendered, and four in the academic course and two in the conservatory of music received final honors.

The spacious auditorium of the academy was well filled with an appreciative audience, that admired the artistically decorated stage. A beautiful centerpiece, the guardian angel, formed an exquisite background, with drapings of red and white, and floral festoons of the same color. These of the class 1909 were everywhere in evidence.

Prominent among the guests were

Reverend J. Sullivan, D. D., Butte, Rev. J. Kennedy, Butte, Rev. J. B. Thompson, Bozeman, Mont., Reverend J. Ryan and P. M. Cushman, Ogden, Rev. J. Guinan, C. M., president of All Hallows' college, Salt Lake City, Rev. L. Killely, C. M., Rev. J. Duclos, C. M., Salt Lake City, Rev. J. Honihan, Salida, Colorado.

From the opening chorus from Lohengrin to the last note played by the two graduates in the Conservatory of Music, artistic taste and exquisite finish were displayed. "Wynken, Blynken and Nod," by the private vocal class was appreciated as it deserved—a perfect combination of words and music. The work of Miss Stewart in vocal and instrumental music was exceptionally fine, and second only to that of Miss Malone, both young ladies being graduates in Sacred Heart Conservatory of Music.

Special commendation was given Miss Kiebler and Miss G. Malone, young violinists of rare merit. The physical culture class in exercises and artistic dancing won prolonged applause. The literary numbers were of unusual merit. The timely recitation, "The Maid of Orleans," by style and in expression, was given in perfect unison, and was a gem in movement and interpretation. Miss Malone, in her monologue, "The Musicale," captivated the audience by her naturalness of expression and acting. The essays were individual in style and treatment. Miss Elizabeth O'Neill's showing depth of thought and strength of expression, while Miss Monica Miller's was a poetic gem, echoing the lofty inspirations of her mountain-girt land. Miss Hagge's sympathetic view of Tennessee was timely and telling, while the valedictory, as delivered by Miss Malone, was touching and tender, a poetic phrasing of gentle thoughts and tearful farewells.

The conferring of medals and diplomas fell to the ever-faithful friend of Sacred Heart, Rev. P. M. Cushman, whose heart was evidently in his work.

The address to the graduates by George H. Davis was a gem of thought and expression, in which he urged the young ladies to cultivate the poetic element, for he declared that the poet saw his fellowmen more clearly than they saw themselves, for he realized their best. The force of the threefold training in which the spiritual and ethical were not neglected was apparent. Mr. Davis declared, in the graduates of Sacred Heart, and he urged them to be true to those ideals.

The art and needlework display in the library repaid those who visited the second floor, where beautiful samples of students' work were displayed. Drawing, designing, pen and ink sketching, water color, oil, china and pyrography all found place, and amid the dainty cups and saucers, one might inspect excellent samples of Palmer penmanship, geometry exercises, etc.

Special mention should be made of the work of Mrs. Bowen, Miss Irene Tomask, Goldie Roberts, Susie Jackson, L. A. Terrill, Irene Cromar, Sadie Beecher, Yvonne Rouff and Hilda Anderson.

The fancy work was of exquisite daintiness, dresser scarfs, centerpieces in eyelet embroidery, beautiful designs in battenburg, and serviceably applied pillows prevailing.

The final exercises of 1909 closed with a banquet at Idlewild. It was given complimentary to the class of 1909 and the members were invited into the Alumnae of Sacred Heart Academy.

Heavy Travel to the Park.—H. H. Hays, general passenger and ticket agent of the Wylie Canyon company of Yellowstone park, was in the city yesterday and says that travel through the national park is at an outburst this season, and the influx of excursionists promises to be the heaviest in the history of that great national resort.
